

I. Comprehension

- A. The best title is: 3. A new medical invention
- B. 1. True, 3. I learned a lot from an online free programme on electronics.
 2. False, 3. I went to the bank, but they wanted all sorts of guarantees.
 3. True, 3. The Cardopad saves me time and money.
- C. 1. The idea for this invention came to his mind while he was watching a television programme about electrocardiographs during a visit to a hospital in 2007.
 2. The heart specialist interprets the results, makes a diagnosis and sends it back with a prescription to the nurse treating the patient.
 3. He posted a video about his project on Facebook. This led to $20,000 grant from the Cameroonian government.
- D. 1. « travel to urban centers to seek medical examinations.
 2. « « investors who share his vision of better ways to help improve people's lives.
- E. 1. limited: restricted 2. look for: seek 3. expert specialist
- F. 1. their results 2. which: tablets

II. Language:

- A. 1. independence 2. renewable
- B. 1. areas 2. stands for
- C. 1. whom 2. living
- D. 1. will have completed 2. met
- E. 1. La Boite à Merveille was written by Ahmed Sefrioui in 1954.
 2. Although Jim was an expert, he couldn't recover his files from his hard disk.
 3. If our goalkeeper had been in good physical condition, we would have lost the game (wouldn't or might not) Or: If our goalkeeper had been in good physical condition, we could have won the game (could, would or might)
- F. 1. c. expressing certainty 2. a. expressing regret
- G. There could be more than one possible answer